In a desperate effort to get her “back on track,” the family, led by single mom, JEANETTE, strips Sara’s bedroom of her band collectibles. Before leaving, Sara meets singer/songwriter, MICHAEL, 17, the new boy next door. He’s attracted to her. Meanwhile, LILY, record shop manager, enters Sara’s name in a new contest offered by Jeremy’s Boy Band, which promises a chance to appear with Jeremy in the band’s new video. Sara vows to win at any cost. Sara wins the contest with the enhanced recording Michael reluctantly creates of Sara singing the band’s latest hit. In Hollywood to collect her prize, Sara finds herself in a bizarre super-real adventure. Lily and evil twins, BRITTA and KERRY, do their best to make over Sara to prepare her for the prize events to come. She’s shocked at learning the truth about the band and Jeremy. Now, forced to keep the band’s secrets and over her obsession, she returns to the reality and the honesty of the boy next door and his music.
